You might recall that we met briefly at lunch one day during the transition; I was with Doug Domenech when you arrived.

I am now on detail to the Deputy Secretary's office as the staff lead for the National Monument review process. We need at least one person from BLM on the team, and Downey Magellanes, who is the political lead for this, suggested I contact you. I just received your note on Rep. Tipton from her.

The BLM person(s) should be generally familiar with BLM's monuments and be able to reach within the agency to collect information with a short turnaround. Perhaps independently of the team member for now, we also need a list of the Representatives whose Districts include any of BLM's monuments to be reviewed, if possible by COB Friday. The tentative list of monuments being reviewed is attached for your use, but please do not circulate it at this point.

I would be glad to talk with you on this if needed.
